

FLUID END MODULE REPAIR

TRUST THE EXPERTS AT SOUTHWEST FOR MODULE REPAIRS

SOUTHWEST
OILFIELD PRODUCTS, INC.

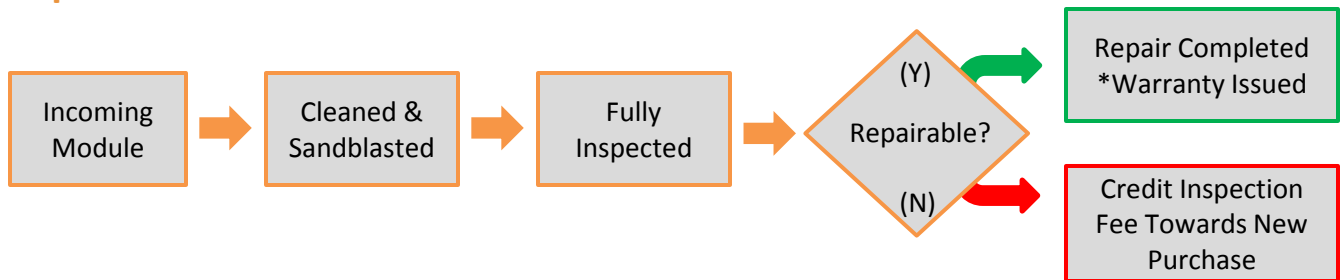

With over 60 years of mud pump manufacturing experience, Southwest Oilfield Products, Inc. has the “know how” to repair your Modules and Manifolds to like new condition.

Our repair service solutions are offered on essentially every make and model regardless of manufacture including:

- |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> American Block®         | <input type="checkbox"/> Drillemec®      | <input type="checkbox"/> Lewco® (Cameron)              |
| <input type="checkbox"/> American Manufacturing® | <input type="checkbox"/> Emsco®          | <input type="checkbox"/> National Oilwell Varco® (NOV) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Bomco®                  | <input type="checkbox"/> Gardner Denver® | <input type="checkbox"/> Wirth®                        |

Repair Workflow

Repair Offerings

Our Southwest module and manifold repair team is led by some of our most experienced technicians who joined the Southwest team nearly 40 years ago. This level of supervisory expertise ensures a quality repair every time. Repair offerings include:

- Module & Manifold Washouts
- Stress Crack Repair
- Broken Stud Removal
- General Machining & Welding
- Liner Honing

Warranty Details

Quality in craftsmanship is one of the most important priorities at Southwest Oilfield Products Inc. *All repairs are covered by a 90 day warranty. A full inspection report, including digital photography is issued with each repair and this documentation is stored in our system for future reference.